

PREHISTORICA DINOSAURS

by Robert Sabuda and Matthew Reinhart

Objectives: ...understand the law and legal vocabulary
...give examples of rules or laws that establish order, provide security, and manage conflict

Name the Dinosaur!

ACROSS CLUES:

2. A mini meat-eater that had nimble fingers to grab squirming prey
6. Plant-eating dinosaurs who appeared in the Cretaceous Period
8. The newly discovered South American dinosaur that may be the heaviest dinosaur ever discovered
9. The largest armored, vegetarian dinosaur with three horns and a solid-bone frill
10. The dinosaur with the longest neck, seven times longer than a giraffe, and the smallest head

DOWN CLUES:

1. The good mother lizard whose fossils were discovered in Montana protecting nests and babies
3. The not-too-bright dinosaurs with rows of vertical plates or gruesome spikes on their backs and tails
4. A gigantic long-necked dinosaur from the Jurassic Period
5. A vegetarian dinosaur that measured 89 feet long and had a tail like a bullwhip
7. One of the smartest dinosaurs with the largest brain size compared to its body

Dino Box

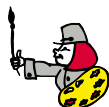

TROODON
PENTACERATOPS

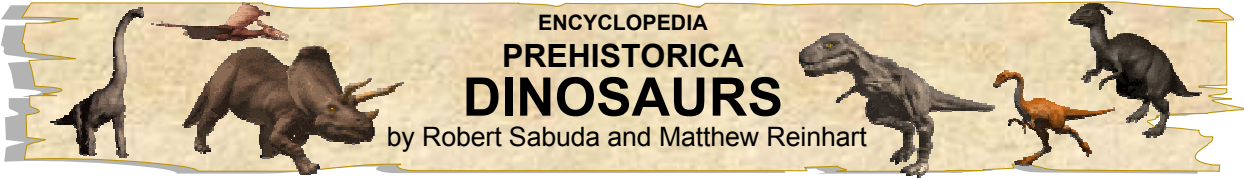

MAIASAURA
BAROSAURUS

COELOPHYSIS
TRICERATOPS

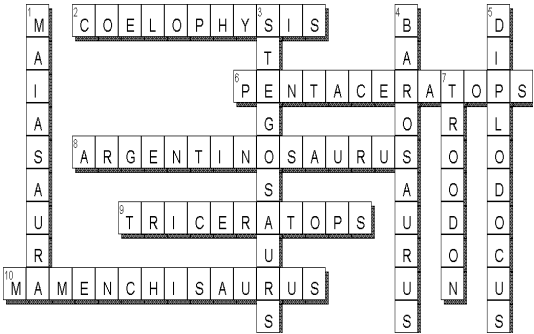

DIPLODOCUS
ARGENTINOSAURUS

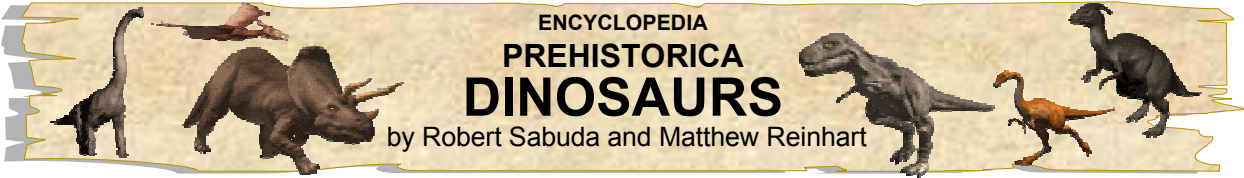

MAMENCHISAURUS
STEGOSAURS

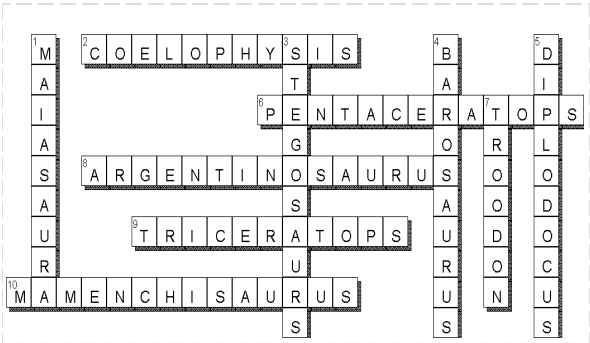

Answers to Page 86:

For your book: Print this replacement crossword puzzle. Trim off the header and footer. Glue it over the original crossword puzzle on page 66 of Forever Friendships.

To correct the answer page in the BOOK:

Cut out this answer sheet for the answer page for Encyclopedia Prehistorica Dinosaurs.

In the book paste it into the Answer Page 265 over the incorrect crossword puzzle.