Afternoon session

This year's BEST award-winning picture books, easy chapter books, and novels will get your students off to a great start academically and socially. Tapping into children's laughter and wonder, these literature collections build enthusiasm for academic and social skills as well as character development. Suzy Red has created activities that cross disciplines to inspire your students discover and develop their gifts! They will have a smooth lift-off and, before long, will be flying higher! Librarians and Teachers can register.
