

The answer is: It was divided into quarters by the Allied countries. 3/4 were combined into West Germany. One part was retained by Russia and called East Germany

1. The FIRST question is:

In what year did Hitler become the leader of Germany?

The answer is: 1933

My question is:

What was Hitler's big plan?

The answer is: ... to take over the world.

My question is:

What country did Germany invade first?

The answer is: Poland

My question is:

Who were the Aryan people that Hitler so admired?

The answer is: People with blond hair and blue eyes

My question is:

Why did Hitler select and train Aryan children?

The answer is: He wanted them to become the future citizens of Germany and produce perfect children.

My question is:

What race of people did Hitler hate?

The answer is: Jews

My question is:

What was Hitler's "Final Solution" to deal with Jews?

The answer is: He sent his soldiers to capture them, put them in ghettos, transport them in freight cars to prison camps, and then, to kill them.

My question is:

How did they kill the Jews in the prison camps?

The answer is: Gas chambers

My question is:

How many Jews died during World War II?

The answer is: six million, 2/3 of Europe's Jewish population

My question is:

How many children did the Nazi army kill?

The answer is: One and a half million

My question is:

What other people did Hitler order his Nazi army to kill?

The answer is: the sick, the handicapped, political prisoners, and those who protested

My question is:

Before Jews were taken to prison camps, what symbol were they required to wear on their clothes?

The answer is: A Yellow Star

My question is:

What is the word that means the great slaughter of Jews during World War II

The answer is: The Holocaust

My question is:

When Hitler first came to power in Germany, how did he change the schools?

The answer is: Schoolbooks were either rewritten or replaced and schoolteachers who did not support Hitler's ideas for the curriculum were fired.

My question is:

When Hitler first took power, what happened to workers' wages?

The answer is: Workers' wages dropped by 25%.

My question is:

What happened to labor unions and collective bargaining under Hitler?

The answer is: Unions were abolished, as well as collective bargaining and the right to strike.

My question is: Why didn't people quit their jobs?

The answer is: The right to quit their jobs was taken away.

I have a riddle for you:

What happened to private ownership of business after Hitler took control?

The answer is: The largest firms were mostly exempt from taxes on profits, however government control of these were extensive enough to leave "only the shell of private ownership."

My question is:

Which European country joined Nazi Germany?

The answer is: Italy

My question is:

Which Asian country joined Nazi Germany?

The answer is: Japan

My question is: What were Germany, Italy, and Japan called during World War II?

The answer is: The Axis

My question is:
What four countries stood up together to oppose the Axis, and what were they called?

The answer is: The United States, England, France, and Russia who fought against the Axis were called the Allies.

My question is: What event brought the United States into World War II?

The answer is: Japan bombed Pearl Harbor to destroy the American Navy.

My question is:

What event forced Japan to surrender?

The answer is: The United States dropped the atomic bombs on two Japan cities.

My question is:

Which Japanese cities were destroyed by the American atomic bomb?

The answer is: Nagasaki and Hiromisha

My question is:

Whose soldiers invaded Germany and destroyed the Nazi army?

The answer is:

Soldiers from the United States and England

My question is:

What did countries do to be sure there was enough food and supplies during war?

The answer is: They instituted rationing.

My question is:

How did Germany change after World War II was over?
