

I Wanna Iguana

by Karen Kaufman Orloff

Illustrated by David Catrow

Persuasive Writing Song

to the tune of "Clementine"

Objective: ...present dramatic interpretations of experiences, stories

Want a favor? Want a favor?
Want a favor from your mom?
Write a letter. Write it better.
Because it's best to stay real calm.

Write a letter! Write a letter!
To persuade your mom or dad.
Start by saying nice and sweet things,
So your words will make them glad.

Think of reasons you should get it.
Make a list back in your room.
Write the one reason in a letter,
And they may say "yes" real soon.

If they say no, back to work go,
Smiling, singing all the way.
Never crying, never whining,
Only sweet, kind words you'll say.

On your room's list find a reason
That might make your mom agree.
Put a letter on her pillow.
Say a prayer. Then wait and see.

